Prize Table Linens At the New Palais Royal.

MESSES. WM. LITTLE & CO. OF DONACLONEY, LURGEN, IRE-LAND, BESTOWED THE THREE FIRST AWARDS AT THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION, ARE TO BE REPRESENTED IN WASHINGTON WITH A GRAND EXHIBITION AT THE PALAIS ROYAL, CORNER OF ELEV-ENTH AND G STREETS, COMMENCING WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22,

The manager of the Palais Royal Linen Department begs to announce that he has also secured the gems of other leading makers, and in order to make the erhibition both interesting as well as instructive the largest show window will be arranged as was one of the most attractive displays at the Exposition....The department will also be appropriately decorated with the prize Linens, so that tomorrow may be termed

Reception Day in the Linen Department.

The display will include the most beautiful and artistic designs in Damask Dinner Sets up to $30 each, Cloths up to $20 each, Napkins up to $12.50 dozen, Doylies up to $5 dozen,............Since these Lineas are not loaned but sold to us at comparatively little prices, we are enabled to promise "bargains" to those who wish to purchase as well as admire.

50 Sets for $5.50 Each, Well Worth $7.50.

These are All Pure Linen Double Damask Sets, in five prize designs. Each set comprises one Cloth  $2x2\frac{1}{2}$  yards, with twelve Napkins to match. \$5.50 is a complimentary price that will be appreciated by visitors here tomorrow.

E7The "Opening" in the Art Needlework Department makes another The "Opening" in the Art Needlework Department makes Bhother section of the second floor well worthy a visit.—The one department with its grand showing of snow-white Table Linen and smillax decorations, and the other with its fascinating blending of art colors in Draperies, are attractive to the eye, while the little prices lightly touch the pockets of the practical ones who anticipate the selection. Art Needlework for Christmas Presents and Table Linen for Thanksgiving Day turkey.

Those Four Bargain Tables

(NEAR ELEVATOR, ON FIRST FLOOR.)

How much the Palais Royal announcements are read has been brought before us the last few days, during which we have a hundred times been reminded that the contents of those bargain tables did not appear in the paper......Contents for tomorrow:—On No. 1 Table will be about twenty end pieces of Wool Dress Goods worth up to $1 a yard at 35e a yard for choice. The very critical will say "remnants." We reply, sufficient for one dress or more in every piece.....Table No. 2 will groan under the weight of nearly fifty pieces of Heavy Flannelette at 5c instead of 10e a yard.—Actually worth 10 cents, but the designs and colors of the stripes make it look like much more expensive flannel.....Table No. 3 is to be again supplied with all colors of 35e quality China Silis at only 25c a yard—Those wishing the scarce art shades must not expect they are exceptions—must not expect that all others will put off visiting here until late in the day. The moral need not be told......Table No. 4 will attract the usual crowd—with Ladles' Fleeced Winter Bal. Vests and Pants worth 50e for 25e and Hose worth 35e and 50e for 25e a pair. (NEAR ELEVATOR, ON FIRST FLOOR.)
